Part 2 Pleading not guilty

About pleading Not Guilty:

Pleading not guilty means that you disagree with the facts alleged by the prosecution, saying that they did not occur or that the evidence of the alleged offence to be presented by the prosecution is insufficient to allow the allegation to be proved against you.

It is often the case that you merely wish to explain WHY the alleged events occurred and for the court to take those reasons into account. In this situation you may seek legal advice as to how to plead or consider pleading guilty and asking the court to take into account the explanation offered. (See "About pleading Guilty" below)

This is a sample only. It is important to complete this form with your own details and based on your own circumstances. If you need more, you should help get legal advice.

If you elect to plead Not Guilty, the prosecution will be obliged to call their witnesses to give evidence to the alleged events at a trial, which will take place on a later date. You will be required to attend on that later date when you will have the opportunity to give your evidence, ask questions of the prosecution witnesses and any witnesses that you have elected to attend court, to evidence in your defence as to the events that lead to the alleged offence.

Should your defence be successful, the offence may be dismissed. Should your defence be unsuccessful the court may find the case proven against you, and in addition to any penalty that may be imposed you may also be exposed to pay the expenses of the prosecution witnesses.
